MANAV MANGAL HIGH SCHOOL, CHD

Labour Day was celebrated at Manav Mangal High School, Sector 21-C, Chandigarh with great fervor and zeal. The function started with a speech welcoming the workers followed by a beautiful performance by the students of Class II. Thereafter the senior students presented an inspirational song.

All the Class IV employees, bus drivers and rickshaw pullers were felicitated and presented with utility items and eatables. Games and competitions were also organized for them and Prizes were distributed for the same. The senior students praised them for their unconditional support throughout the year. The workers were overwhelmed and expressed their gratitude towards the school management, teachers and students for their endeavour.
